Who This Guide Is For

This guide is for job seekers who want to land a real, hireable remote job (not start a business or agency). It's for anyone tired of office commutes, looking for flexibility, or aiming to work for top employers from anywhere. Whether you're a new grad, career changer, or experienced pro, you'll find exact roles, pay, and step-by-step tactics here.

▶ MODULE 02

Opportunity Snapshot

$60K–$120K

Typical pay range for real remote jobs (source-reported, varies by role)

50+

Distinct remote job titles catalogued below

2–8 weeks

Typical time to land a remote job with focused effort (source: creator transcripts)

100%

Remote roles can be found in tech, sales, support, healthcare, and more

No degree required

Many roles open to non-grads (see catalog)

▶ MODULE 03

Why This Job Is Worth Looking At

Remote jobs offer location freedom, competitive pay, and access to global employers. Entry-level tech sales roles, for example, start at $60–80K (source: creator transcript). Many roles don't require a degree or years of experience — real people are landing them in under 30 days using focused tactics. Remote work is now mainstream, with companies like Zoom, Microsoft, and Outreach hiring globally.

► MODULE 04

What The Job Actually Does

Remote jobs span dozens of fields. Typical tasks depend on the role, but examples include:

- Tech Sales (SDR/BDR): Prospecting leads, booking calls, using tools like Outreach.
- Customer Support: Handling tickets via chat/email, using Zendesk or Intercom.
- Software Developer: Writing code, collaborating via GitHub/Slack.
- Project Manager: Coordinating teams, running meetings on Zoom.
- Data Analyst: Analyzing datasets, reporting via Excel or Tableau.

All work is performed online, with meetings via Zoom or Teams, and deliverables managed in cloud tools.

Pay Potential — The Real Numbers

Role Example	Reported Pay Range	Source
Tech Sales (SDR/BDR)	$60K–$80K	Creator transcript, job boards
Software Developer	$80K–$140K	Remote job boards, Glassdoor
Customer Support Specialist	$45K–$65K	Job boards, company listings
Project Manager	$70K–$120K	Remote job boards, company listings
Data Analyst	$65K–$110K	Job boards, company listings

jobhacker.com @jobhacker

Entry-level tech sales roles (SDR/BDR) start at $60K–$80K (creator transcript). Software roles can reach $140K+. Customer support roles start lower but can ramp to $65K+ with experience. These are source-reported and reflect real job board listings.

► MODULE 06

Requirements

Requirement	Details
Education	Varies; many roles do NOT require a degree (see catalog)
Experience	Entry-level roles available; some require 1–2 years
Tech setup	Laptop, stable internet, webcam/mic
Timezone	Some roles require overlap with company HQ hours
Language	Professional English (other languages a plus for some roles)

► MODULE 07

Skills Needed

Core skills depend on the role. For tech sales: outbound communication, using tools like Outreach, basic CRM navigation. For support: clear written English, ticketing systems (Zendesk, Intercom). For software: coding in required languages. For project management: remote coordination, time management, using tools like Asana or Trello.

► MODULE 08

Certifications or Licenses

Role	Recommended Cert/License	Where to Get It
Tech Sales	None required; SaaS sales bootcamps (optional)	Aspireship, Prehired, CourseCareers
Customer Support	None required	N/A
Software Developer	Optional: AWS, Azure, Google Cloud certs	AWS, Microsoft, Google
Project Manager	Optional: PMP, Scrum Master	PMI, Scrum.org
Data Analyst	Optional: Google Data Analytics Cert	Coursera

▶ MODULE 09

Beginner Roadmap

- 1 Pick a target role from the catalog below.
- 2 Research 3–5 real job postings for that title on sites like WeWorkRemotely, Remote.co, or LinkedIn.
- 3 List the top 10 keywords and skills mentioned in those postings.
- 4 Update your resume with those keywords and any relevant experience (even if non-remote).
- 5 Set up a basic home office: laptop, webcam, quiet background.
- 6 Create a LinkedIn profile with your target job title in the headline.
- 7 Start applying to 10–20 remote jobs per day using a copy/paste script (see below)

7-Day Action Plan

- 1 Day 1: Pick your target role and research 10 real remote job postings.
- 2 Day 2: Update your resume and LinkedIn headline with exact keywords from those postings.
- 3 Day 3: Set up your home office and test your webcam/mic.
- 4 Day 4: Register on 3 remote job boards (WeWorkRemotely, Remote.co, FlexJobs).
- 5 Day 5: Apply to 10 jobs using the template below.
- 6 Day 6: Reach out to 5 people working remotely in your target role on LinkedIn for advice.
- 7 Day 7: Review any responses, tweak your resume, and apply to 10 more jobs.

30-Day Action Plan

- 1 Week 1: Apply to at least 50 remote jobs (10 per day).
- 2 Week 2: Track all applications in a spreadsheet (use a free tool like Huntr or Notion).
- 3 Week 3: Practice video interviews using your webcam; record yourself answering common questions.
- 4 Week 4: Follow up with any companies that haven't responded after 7 days.
- 5 End of Month: Review which applications got responses. Double down on the resume/cover letter versions that worked.

Insider Secrets & Shortcuts

- 1 Apply to 50–100 jobs in your first 30 days — volume matters more than perfection (creator transcript: 'start applying to 50 or 100 jobs per day').
- 2 Use exact keywords from the job description in your resume headline and summary — this is how ATS filters work (source: creator transcript, job board research).
- 3 For tech sales roles, mention experience with Outreach, Zoom, or similar SaaS tools — these are named in real job postings and in creator walkthroughs.
- 4 If you lack experience, build a portfolio of outreach emails or support tickets (even as practice) and link it in your application (creator: 'you have real world experience and something you can actually list on a resume').
- 5 Ask people already in the role for feedback on your outreach message — then iterate (creator: 'ask someone who's done it... can you give me some advice?').
- 6 Remote job scams are common: never pay for access to a job, and avoid roles that don't list a real company name or require crypto payments (see Red Flags section).

▶ MODULE 13

Exact Resume Keywords

Use these keywords (tailor for your target role):

- 'Remote SDR', 'Remote Customer Support', 'Remote Project Manager', 'Remote Data Analyst'
- 'SaaS', 'Outreach', 'Zoom', 'CRM', 'Ticketing', 'Pipeline', 'Lead Generation', 'Customer Success', 'Asana', 'Trello', 'Zendesk', 'Intercom', 'SQL', 'Python', 'Data Visualization', 'Cloud', 'Agile', 'Scrum'

▶ MODULE 14

Copy/Paste Application Script

▶ MODULE 15

Interview Talking Points

- 1 Describe your home office setup and how you stay productive remotely.
- 2 Give a specific example of solving a problem or helping a customer online.
- 3 Mention familiarity with the exact tools listed in the job description (e.g., Outreach, Zendesk, Asana).
- 4 Share how you handle communication and collaboration across time zones.
- 5 If asked about experience, reference any freelance, volunteer, or side projects done remotely.

▶ MODULE 16

Red Flags / Scams To Avoid

Common Remote Job Scams

Avoid any job that: - Asks for payment to apply or for training - Uses only Telegram/WhatsApp for communication - Does not list a real company name or website - Offers pay that seems too high for the role ($100/hr for data entry, etc.) - Requires you to cash checks, buy gift cards, or handle crypto - Sends you a check to 'buy equipment' before you're hired Always research the company on LinkedIn and Glassdoor before proceeding.

Source Notes

“You take your outreach strategies and skills that you’ve put together and you start applying to 50 or 100 jobs per day. Now you’re making four, five, or $6,000 per month. And on top of that, you are standing out way more than every other candidate...”

THE JOBHACKI ARSENAL

This guide is 1% of what members get

The community unlocks the tools that do the heavy lifting for you:

OmniCut

Upload any video — get back a timestamped, cut-by-cut edit blueprint: hooks, vocal cues, effects and animation calls, all mapped to the viral frameworks behind our own content. You (or your AI editor) just follow the map.

JobHacki Resume Builder

Our exact one-page, recruiter-tested template — auto-built from your LinkedIn in minutes, exported as an editable doc + PDF.

JobHacki Readiness Simulator

Paste any job link. Get tested on what the role actually requires, see your readiness score, and get the fastest study path to close the gaps.

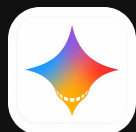

Atlas Directory

Every guide and career path we publish — refreshed by 24/7 AI researchers so you never act on stale info.

WHAT EACH TOOL ACTUALLY DOES

OmniCut

OmniCut watches your entire video the way an elite editor would — every frame, the full transcript, your offer and what you're actually selling — then runs it through the viral frameworks behind our own content. What you get back is a timestamped editing score: your video chopped into 10-second sequences, each with exact vocal cues, audio cues, effect calls and animation directions. Copy a sequence, paste it into Gemini Omni, and generate that cut — then the next, then the next, until the whole edit is done. Runs as a custom GPT inside ChatGPT (you'll need a ChatGPT account), purpose-built for Gemini Omni video editing the day it drops.

JobHacki Resume Builder

Drop in your LinkedIn (or paste your experience) and it rebuilds everything into the exact one-page format we use: tight summary line, education with the details recruiters scan for, metric-driven experience bullets, and the 10-category skills stack that beats ATS keyword filters. Out comes a polished PDF plus a fully editable doc — change any line later without starting over. Single-industry and multi-industry versions included.

JobHacki Readiness Simulator

Paste a real job posting link. The simulator breaks down what that role actually demands — skills, tools, terminology, scenarios — and tests you on it: multiple choice, written answers, even voice roleplay for interviews and sales calls. You get a Readiness Score out of 100 across skill match, tool match, communication and interview readiness, plus the exact study plan to close your gaps — linked straight to the guides, certs and resources that fix them.

Atlas Directory

The full living library: 100+ grounded, step-by-step playbooks across AI businesses, careers, trades, healthcare paths and side income — every one built from people who actually did it, never theory. Our AI researchers monitor hundreds of creators and sources around the clock, so tools, pay data and methods stay current. Search it, filter it, read online or download any guide as a PDF.
